How to find us:

Powys Safety Solutions is based at the rear of 16-17 Longbridge Street, Llanidloes, Powys, SY18 6EE.
Tel: 01686 412 048

Pedestrian access is through the blue gate to the side of Llani Pop Up (former Post Office) which is opposite a Spar Supermarket. Alternatively, vehicle access is through the large double gates off Church Lane, adjacent to St Idloes Church.

Llanidloes is situated only a two hour drive away from Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham, Bristol and Cardiff, with the national rail network running close by: nearest station is Caersws, 8 miles away.

To and from Llanidloes by bus

Bus

Llanidloes is well served by bus services to the coast at Aberystwyth, Newtown, Welshpool and Shrewsbury and to Rhayader and to Llandrindod Wells. The National Express shuttle also operates through Llanidloes for services to Birmingham and the National Express UK network.

National Express runs every day from Aberystwyth via Llanidloes to Birmingham for onward travel to the rest of the UK. To book tickets, use the National Express website.

To and from Llanidloes by train

Train

Caersws is the nearest train station to Llanidloes at a distance of 8 miles. For onward travel, check the bus times from Caersws to Llanidloes. Caersws to London is typically 3.5 to 4 hours. If travelling at the weekend, call National Train Enquiries on 08457 484950 (+44 8457 484950 outside UK) to check on engineering works which delay journeys. Travel on Sunday is much longer and there are no buses so this is not recommended.

Drive

Llanidloes sits just off the A470 around 30 miles from the English border. From Birmingham and the Midlands, take the M54 through Telford, A458 and A483 through Shrewsbury, Welshpool and Newtown. From the south, the A470 offers a spectacular cross-country route from Cardiff. There is a small car park at the premises, accessed along Church Lane through the double gates. Larger, free car parks are also available in Church Square and the Gro Car Park off Smithfield Street.
